Holy Cross College Hosts Annual Basil's Boo Bash Children's Festival

NOTRE DAME, IN (October 16, 2019) - Looking for a safe, family-friendly way to celebrate Halloween with the kids?

Holy Cross College will host its annual Basil's Boo Bash, previously known as Ghosts and Goblins, on Tuesday, October 29, 6pm – 8pm.

Dress up in a costume or come as you are for this fun-filled event that features ghoulish games, eerie crafts, a costume contest, Halloween-themed refreshments, prizes, and trick-or-treating!

"Basil's Boo Bash is a fun, safe place to enjoy Halloween with family and friends. Hope to see everyone for a merry – not scary- time", stated co-event coordinator and Holy Cross student, Dylan Mangel.

All activities are family friendly and age 3-9 years appropriate. Children must be accompanied by an adult. Basil's Boo Bash will take place in the Ave Brew Café, located in Vincent Hall on the Holy Cross College campus, 54515 State Route, 933 North, South Bend (across from the WNDU station) and is free to the public.

Pats Vazquez, co-event coordinator and Holy Cross student, went on to say, "This is an event that Holy Cross students really look forward to each year because it connects the local community with our Holy Cross family."
